

THE COOLEST PLACES TO HANG OUT

Teens love to get out of the house and have fun. Let's take a look at some of the best places in the world that teens can visit to have a good time.

Trocadero - London United Kingdom

In the heart of London's theatre district is The Trocadero. It is the largest and coolest entertainment complex in the city. The Trocadero, or 'The Troc' as London teens call it, is one of the coolest teen hangouts in London. It offers a great place to eat, watch a movie, shop, play the newest video games, experience the latest simulation rides. The Trocadero was originally used as a music hall, but now it is a great place for teens to spend the day. They can watch the latest film on an enormous screen and then get something to eat at Yo! Sushi. They can also go shopping at the many shops inside and meet with friends to go bowling. The Trocadero also has the most recent and coolest 4D cinema rides. There is so much to do at this wonderful place that it's impossible to get bored. The only difficult thing is deciding what to do first!

West Edmonton Mall, Edmonton Canada

The West Edmonton Mall is one of the coolest places to hang out, especially for teens. If you want to have a relaxing night, you can come to the West Edmonton Mall to eat at one of the many restaurants and then watch the latest movies at the cinema. If you want a little more action, the mall has its own amusement park. The Galaxyland Amusement Park has roller coasters, swings and thrilling rides that are perfect for teens. The World Waterpark is huge and has slides for all types from beginners to advanced. The extreme slides are very fast. The mix of slides is great if you have friends or family of different age groups. The Waterpark is totally indoors and kept at a warm temperature so you don't have to worry about the weather. After having a swim at the waterpark, you can go skating at the West Edmonton Mall's indoor rink or, of course, you can enjoy some fantastic shopping at the mall's 800 stores.

Dave & Buster's, New York USA

When the kids of New York want to hang out and have fun, there's Dave & Buster's. It's an amazing place where you can grab a bite to eat before playing billiards and air hockey, or enjoying the latest interactive video games.

Exciting menus include quesadillas, burgers, buffalo wings, steaks, nachos and combo platters. After you've eaten, you can top up your 'Power Card' and play everything from the classics to the latest and most exciting action games – there's also possible to win hundreds of incredible prizes!

Xscape, Glasgow Scotland

If you're looking for action and excitement in Glasgow then Xscape is the place to go. Here teens can hang out, eat, shop and play, including snow sports on the venue's indoor snow slope. Teens can enjoy skiing and snowboarding on the 200m long slope, covered with over 1,700 tonnes of real snow! Beginners can build their skills and confidence with lessons and coaching on a dedicated lessons slope, or if you prefer you can even go sledging and ice sliding. If that's not exciting for you, Xscape also offers rock climbing, adventure golf, bowling, laser games and a multi-screen cinema.
